September 2003

The Resource Center at the California Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs (ADP) is pleased to present the 2003 Library Videocassette Catalog. Videos in this catalog are gathered from many sources and have been reviewed for appropriateness of content. Several new videos have been added and some have been deleted. Many of the “oldies but goodies” videos are still available. The contents, opinions, and beliefs expressed in the videos are the views of the source, and are not intended as official ADP policy. All videos are available on a loan basis, at no cost to you.

The catalog is divided into three sections.

Section I – Introduction

A summary of the Resource Center’s services including information about the Library services.

Section II – Alphabetical Listing

Provides the video title, description, copyright date and video running time.

Section III – Subject Listing

Video titles listed in this section are divided by subject to assist you in selecting materials appropriate for your audience.

Questions or comments regarding these videos can be directed to the Resource Center Library. Additionally, a customer evaluation form is enclosed with each order. Please take a few moments to complete and return this form to us. In order to improve our services, comments about our services and suggestions on videos are important.

The Resource Center Staff

ABOUT THE RESOURCE CENTER

The Resource Center, California Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs (ADP), maintains a comprehensive collection of alcohol, tobacco, and other drug (ATOD) prevention and treatment information. This information is provided to all residents of California at no cost through a Clearinghouse, a full-service Library, Internet communication links, and a telephone information and referral system. These services can be accessed by letter, fax, Internet, e-mail, telephone, or in person during the business hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, excluding state holidays.

The Resource Center is a member of the Regional Alcohol and Drug Awareness Resource (RADAR) Network, and the Substance Abuse Librarians and Information Specialists (SALIS). Through RADAR and SALIS, the Resource Center connects with clearinghouses, libraries, prevention and treatment resource centers, national, international, and local organizations in the exchange and dissemination of ATOD information.

Following are brief descriptions of services that are provided at no cost:

CLEARINGHOUSE

More than 600 alcohol, tobacco, and other drug brochures, pamphlets, research papers, posters, program descriptions, technical manuals, and other helpful materials are available through the Clearinghouse. The Clearinghouse not only provides information on an individual basis, but also provides materials, upon request, for community meetings, conferences, workshops, schools, and prevention and treatment facilities. Resource Center staff continually work to find additional resources and provide new materials.

LIBRARY

The Resource Center Library maintains a collection of specialized alcohol and other drug reference sources. Staff can help locate books, journals, reports, videotapes, or other source materials. These materials are available for loan directly to government agencies and organizations funded through county alcohol and drug programs, as well as other lending libraries. Individuals can obtain these materials through an interlibrary loan from their local library. Staff can also provide assistance with research projects, reference questions, and referrals. On-line databases, including library catalogs and Internet sources, are searched to provide up-to-date reference and research support. Videos also are available through a loan process. A catalog of available videos can be ordered through the Resource Center Clearinghouse.

INFORMATION, REFERRAL, AND ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION

The Resource Center provides non-emergency information only and does not operate a crisis line. Two free statewide telephone numbers (1-800-879-2772) and (1-800-662-4357) are available to California residents to use in their search for alcohol or other drug prevention and treatment information or publications. Requests for treatment information are referred to the alcohol and other drug programs' administrative office in the county in which the caller resides. The Resource Center can be reached from outside California by calling (916) 327-3728.

Persons who call for referral services after 4:30 p.m. and before 8:00 a.m. are requested to leave a voice mail message including their area code and phone number. Calls are returned the following business day.

Through an extension of ADP's home page (www.adp.ca.gov), the Resource Center maintains a number of electronic communication links. The Resource Center's web site provides easy access to information about the Clearinghouse, the Library, the Publications and Videocassette Catalogs, and links to many ATOD Web sites.

For teenagers, this video offers powerful, personal perspectives on the value of community services by young people involved in them.

1991 \ 17 min.

Trap: Selling Drugs in the Inner City

Examines the economic and social circumstances that may make selling drugs seem like an attractive option to urban youth, and the economic and social realities of selling drugs. Candid interviews with current and former drug dealers and with professionals who work with urban youth provide insight into a lifestyle that is widely practiced in today's inner cities.

1992 \ 26 min.

Treatment 101

This is the second video in a seven-part series of Webcasts that discusses and illuminates key issues related to the 2001 Recovery Month observance. This program discusses the fundamentals of addiction treatment, looks at effective treatment modalities, and presents the latest national treatment initiatives.

2001 \ 59 min.

>>Series Title: Drug Addiction Recovery Month

Treatment Issues for Women

Specific issues, methods, and techniques are presented to help viewers understand the multi-faceted dimensions of treating women who use drugs. Examines the challenges that women bring to treatment.

1997 \ 15 min.

Trial, Treatment, and Transformation

Introduces the findings of a Physician Leadership on National Drug Policy (PLNDP) study that reviewed the research on addiction and the criminal justice system. Profiles two graduates of Richmond, Virginia's drug court and the effects the drug court has had on their lives. Features comments and conclusions of leading physicians, researchers, and community leaders who have found that treatment for substance abuse within the criminal justice system is not only effective for the drug offenders involved, but also cost-effective for their communities. Presents evidence on the effectiveness of treatment programs as compared to incarceration. Examines alternative approaches to combating juvenile drug use and relapse.

1999 \ 18 min.

Tweaked

A shocking and hard to watch film using a "scared straight" approach designed for the addict or those who need a strong warning about meth.

2000 \ 20 min.

Tweaked: A Generation in Overdrive

Designed for parents, counselors, schools, or law enforcement officials. This video includes all of the graphic sequences from the video "Tweaked" plus it takes a look at how a family of four girls recovered from meth addiction.

2000 \ 50 min.

U

Understanding a Need: Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Prevention for People With Disabilities

Provides a glimpse into the issues of alcohol and other drug abuse prevention and disabilities.

1993 \ 15 min.

Uppers, Downers, All Arounders: Drugs & Effects

Uses a visually compelling combination of animation, live action, graphics and interviews with addiction experts and particularly recovering users to present a current, wide ranging, nonjudgmental overview of drug use. Current drugs of abuse including Ecstasy, methamphetamines, marijuana, and inhalants, along with the "legal" drugs (alcohol, caffeine, tobacco, and benzodiazepines), are covered. In addition, concepts like hereditary and environmental influences, the physiology of drug use, and levels of use are examined.

2001 \ 1 hr. 3 min.

Using the ASI to Assess Client Needs and Treatment Planning: A Training Videotape

A two-volume training video demonstrating the use of the Addiction Severity Index (ASI). Covers the seven problem areas assessed in the standard interview as well as supplemental questions that may be asked of women. Includes an ASI Handbook for Program Administrators, a Resource Manual, and a Training Facilitator's Manual.

1993 \ 65 min. \ 64 min.

1996 \ 15 min.

Vision of Hope: Preventing Violence, A

An inspirational video that examines our culture of violence and looks at ways we can reverse its rising tide and create safe and healthy communities. Discover how prevention efforts offer a promise for violence-free neighborhoods. Hear what experts have learned. Listen to the determined people who are making this happen.

1997 \ 15 min.

W

Walking Death, The

Describes the effects of MPTP, a fake heroin. Often passed out in the streets as the real thing, it can cause devastating harm. One side effect is a disease like Parkinson's, possible after just one use.

19__ \ 16 min.

Walls That Speak

This story chronicles the creation of a remarkable series of murals. Their theme is: "United by pride, dignity and knowledge, we heal." Young people work together with members of all ages in their community to create a message of wellness and beauty that will stand in their community for many years. Documents positive models initiated by one community as a strategy to battle the negative impact of youth substance abuse, gangs, and violence.

1996 \ 30 min.

War on Addiction: The Battle of Relapse

Father Joseph C. Martin and Delbert Boone talk with a group of inmates at the Hale Creek Correctional Facility in New York about addiction, hope and recovery.

1992 \ 60 min.

We Are Not Who You Think We Are

Women inmates at a maximum-security prison talk candidly about growing up with family violence, sexual abuse, drugs and alcohol. Offers emotional insight into the patterns of violence, addiction and crime that cycle from generation to generation.

1993 \ 14 min.

Web of Addiction

Investigates current research regarding chemical use and abuse, as well as the nature of addiction and dependency, whatever the substance. Psychobiological treatment strategies, as well as community and worksite intervention programs that are having success, are examined from professional, patient, and family points of view.

2000 \ 30 min.

What Everyone Should Know About Alcohol

Using on-the-street interviews, animation, and straightforward commentary by noted authorities, answers are given to five basic questions: Which type of drink is least intoxicating? How many drinks make you drunk? What happens when you drink too much? How many drinkers become problem drinkers? What is the biggest problem caused by alcohol?

1986 \ 20 min.

What Families Can Do to Prevent and Intervene With Alcohol and Drug Problems

This is the third video of a seven-part series of Webcasts that discuss and illuminate key issues related to the 2001 Recovery Month observance. How to prevent or intervene with an alcohol or drug problem are difficult concepts for many families to grasp. Discusses how families can get beyond their denial to stop a drug or alcohol problem before it starts or to intervene in a loved one's addiction.

2001 \ 57 min.

>>Drug Addiction Recovery Month

What Ramon Did

A story about an IV drug-user who returns from jail to his old neighborhood, emphasizes AIDS awareness and risk-avoidance from a Latino viewpoint. His neighbors and friends fear he may be an HIV/AIDS carrier. These fears highlight high-risk behavior and spark an examination of lifestyle change.

(Available in English and Spanish)

1989 \ 30 min.

What You Should Do About Drinking and Driving: Bai Hoc Nho Doi

This short presentation, in Vietnamese, spotlights the Santa Clara County California Driving-Under-the-Influence Program and focuses on a group of male Vietnamese clients. A counselor explains why people drink and a doctor explains the effects of alcohol on the body. The clients give first-person presentations on why they drink, the experiences they went through being caught, the high cost of being fined, and what they had to do to complete the program. (Vietnamese version only)

199_ \ 20 min.

What is FAS

Designed for families, educators, and health professionals. Examines the cause, treatment, and prevention of alcohol-related birth defects. Includes interviews with mothers and families of Fetal Alcohol Syndrome (FAS) children, and a commentary from international experts.

1989 \ 24 min.

What's Wrong With Ecstasy & Other Club Drugs

Counters the myth that Ecstasy is a "harmless love drug" and also presents Ketamine, LSD, and GHB as dangerous substances. Shows a clip from undercover surveillance footage taken at an actual "rave" with interviews of drug-free high school students. Describes the grim physical effects of club drug use as seen by emergency room professionals, coroners, and drug enforcement personnel.

2002 \ 24 min.

What's Wrong With Methamphetamine

Combines first person accounts from methamphetamine (meth) abusers with interviews by medical and law enforcement professionals. Viewers will witness the lingering and debilitating long-term impact the drug has had on a former meth addict. Students will learn that abuse of meth is an epidemic afflicting both urban and rural communities nationwide, and that extreme dangers and environmental hazards accompany its use and production.

2002 \ 25 min.

Where Meth Goes!

Violence and Destruction Follow

Explores the "Methamphetamine Crisis" in America today, and its high cost to society. Examines the violence, child abuse, and social damage to individuals and families that are often caused by this powerful drug. Looks at the environmental impact of meth labs. The facts and stories in this video dramatically illustrate the compelling need for individuals and communities to take action to combat this devastating problem.

1998 \ 17 min.

Which Brain Do You Want?

The Real Reason Why You Should Always Say No To Alcohol, Drugs and Cigarettes

Shows actual brain images of people who have used drugs and alcohol. Based on extensive brain imaging research on hundreds of drug abusers it shows that drugs and alcohol can have a serious negative impact on the physical functioning of the brain. The language in this video is simple and easy to understand. The images and stories convey a powerful anti-drug message.
